COGELOW CARVING EXHIBITIONS

Internationally recognized woodcarver (and likely the bestest such on the entire north side of Willmar, MN) fred cogelow will offer three Minnesota exhibitions of his work in 2025.

Each site will feature unveiling of at least one new piece.

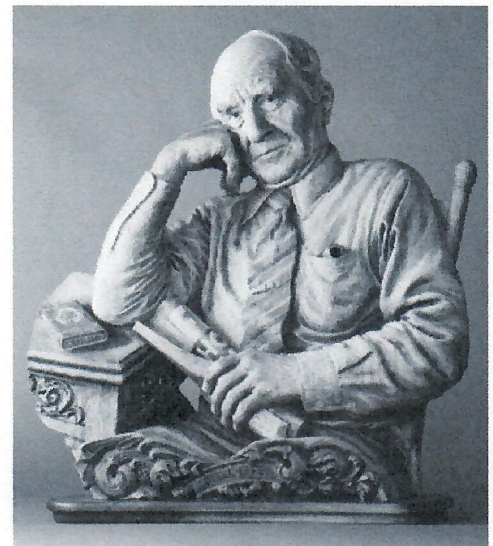

#1. The Milan (MN) Village Arts School annually hosts its "Spoon Gathering," one of the few expanding woodcarving events in the US. In memory of Billy Thompson Jr. and in support of Rural arts and hopes of inspiring carving ventures beyond spoons, cogelow has committed to a Saturday exhibition of 25+ works at the neighboring fire hall, June 7, 10-5.
Info: 320-734-4807 or <admin@milanvillageartsschool.org>

#2. Hopkins Arts Center,

1111 Mainstreet, Hopkins, 952-548-6489

In memory of Bob Mischka, an exhibition (of 40+ pieces) entitled "...Good Dog..."

August 7-Sept 6, Reception August 7, 6-8PM

And, (...NYC, eat yer heart out...!) —#3,

In appreciation of R&M Glesener, rural community arts, and Barry ("...Where the Hell is...?") ZeVan, a showing of 50+ pieces at the Bird Island (MN) Cultural Center, 5640 Dogwood, 55310.

(Info: <birdislandculture.com>). Exhibition runs Oct1-24, with an immaculate reception on Sat., the 4th, from 1-3 PM
